WORTH REARING— WORTH INSURING!

Nearly a quarter of a century ago the first really worth-while form of comprehensive insurance for pets was launched. Experience has proved the scheme to be sound from an underwriting point of view, and from time to time extensions of the scope of the cover offered and amendments in favour of the Insured have been made.

Cats are now insured under the same plan and many breeders have found it advantageous to adopt the insurance.

Comprehensive Cat Policies have come to stay!
