PELHAM GOOD COMPANIONS' LIBRARY

FIFTY YEARS OF PEDIGREE CATS

by

MAY EUSTACE AND ELIZABETH TOWE

FIFTY YEARS OF PEDIGREE CATS

May Eustace and Elizabeth Towe

This is, virtually, a history book; a history of the past fifty years of pedigree cat breeding and management in Britain and abroad. Pedigree cat breeding is, of course, much older than that. But the early years were very much befuddled by legend and folklore. Mrs. Eustace does touch on those early years and in doing so gives a brilliant exposition of how to skate over thin ice without actually getting your feet wet.

When it comes to the fifty years of the title, she is superb. She has it all here and she presents it in the most readable form. She is a cat lover as well as a cat breeder and there is often a very wide gap between the two. She does not ignore the neuter (which is an important fact: the neuter is too often overlooked by modern writers on the cat) and is knowledgeable and infectiously hopeful about some of the new unestablished breeds.

Mrs. Eustace writes so well and is so genuinely in love with her subject that her work cannot fail to appeal to cat-lovers.

Throughout the book she has had the help and guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Towe, whose contributions especially on the recent developments in the Cat Fancy have been invaluable. Mrs. Towe has the authority of a breeder of champion pedigree cats since 1936, an international judge since 1950, and show organiser of the widest experience. For cat breeders and for those who show, this is undoubtedly an important book.
