CENTENARY CAT SHOW

By

Ivor Raleigh, Chairman of the G.C.C.F.

The National Cat Club's Championship Show of 1971 is an historic occasion in that it marks the hundredth anniversary of the world's first cat Show, that staged at the Crystal Palace by Harrison Weir in 1871. The club itself was founded in 1887, the year of Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee, when the beautiful "young head" coinage designed by William Wyon was changed to the older, Jubilee Head coinage which marked the second or middle period of Victoria's long and prosperous reign. In 1898, eleven years later, Lady Marcus Beresford founded the rival Cat Club ; and in 1910 the Governing Council of the Cat Fancy was formed. Since that date we have had a united Cat Fancy which now comprises some 65 cat clubs, most of which are represented on the Council.

Of these Clubs the National Cat Club remains one of the most important ; not only because it was the first Cat Club, but also because its annual Show at Olympia is by far the largest cat show in the whole world, often attracting more than 1600 exhibits representing every variety of pedigree cat as well as a large number of pet cats. As a Show, it is undoubtedly the star attraction of the Cat Calendar ; and it is always prominently covered by the national newspapers and by the television undertakings ; in addition to which, it invariably attracts the leading cat personalities from the U.S.A. and from Europe.

For many years, the Show has been organised by Mrs. Grace Pond, F.Z.S. who is a respected member of the Governing Council, an international judge ; and whose many books on cats have made her name a household word wherever cats are loved and cared for. In spite of her many achievements Grace Pond is a modest woman who is always accessible, and always ready to help the less experienced cat lover. In an organisation such as the Cat Fancy, which is largely populated by members of the fair sex, it is a significant tribute to her nature and character that I have never heard anyone speak of her adversely.

I feel sure that not only the members of the British Cat Fancy, but also all our numerous friends from Fancies abroad join with me in wishing Mrs. Pond and the National Cat Club Show a great success on this notable and historic occasion ; and I personally regard it as a great privilege to act on this day, as one of the seventy-four judges among whom it is my pleasurable duty to welcome Mrs. B. O'Brien (U.S.A.), Mme. Ravel (France), Mr. Gebhardt (U.S.A.), and Madame Hollenstein (Switzerland).

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Although the venue of the first Cat Show was at the Crystal Palace, London in 1871 it was the granting of a licence 75 years ago to the National Cat Club to organise a Championship Show, and later to other Clubs, which gradually improved the status of Cats.

The increasing number of Ch. Shows in England, Scotland and Wales has been instrumental in presenting pedigree Cats and Kittens to the public in greater numbers than ever before, it is also the Universal appeal of Olympia, London, which has attracted a record number of Cat Lovers every year to visit this venue.

The first National Cat Club to be held at Olympia was in 1958 organised by Mrs. Grace Pond, to whom we owe so much for the very successful presentation of these Shows.

It is impossible to estimate how much the prestige of Cats has improved since the first post-war Ch. Show in the Autumn of 1945.

We now see them presented attractively on Television, in advertisements in the Press and referred to on Radio. The literature advising on their care and maintenance has never been so numerous or so helpful to the novice, and so interesting to the more experienced. Many of the books are beautifully illustrated with photographs of winning Cats and Kittens, and others who are lovely but have no claim to fame.

The National Cat Club Ch. Show also provides for the non-pedigree Pet Cats and Kittens and 250 Exhibits graced this Section in December 1970.

Miss Valerie Singleton of T.V. Blue Peter fame gave much appreciated publicity to this part of the Show last year and has done so again this Autumn.

The famous Seal-point Siamese Plainsong Jason has graced the programme, winning much admiration for his equable demeanour and attracting many children and their parents to the Show.

In conclusion the Committee of the National Cat Club wish Exhibitors, Judges, Stewards, the Clerical staff, all of whom so willingly give their services, a Happy day at our 75th Championship Show.

JOAN THOMPSON,

President.

On the occasion of this Centenary of Cat Shows—the Officers and Committee of the National Cat Club are very happy to thank and welcome the judges who have so kindly come from America, France and Switzerland, to judge for us.

We also thank our own British judges, who with their stewards have such a strenuous day, and all who help in any way to make this special day a success.

The popularity of the OLYMPIA Show increases annually, and entries, from being about 200 in years gone by, are now around the 2,000 mark.

Whereas in the "old" days about 16 judges officiated about 80 are now required.

To the exhibitors and visitors we extend our good wishes for a happy and successful day.

THE WORLD'S FIRST CAT SHOW 100 YEARS AGO

PERSIAN CAT 1971

On Wednesday, July 12th 1871, the following advertisement appeared in various national newspapers:

"CRYSTAL PALACE —CAT SHOW—The first show of Domestic and other CATS will be OPENED in the Crystal Palace TO - MORROW (Thursday) at ten o'clock. It will consist of 25 classes, comprising nearly all the known species of Eastern and other foreign domestic cats, as well as a remarkable collection of the British varieties, exhibited for their beauty of colour, form, weight and condition. The show will close at 7 p.m. — Admission to the Palace and to the Show one shilling or by Guinea Season Ticket."

The next day THE MORNING POST wrote: "The greatest novelty of the day in the way of shows is the show of cats to be opened this morning at the Crystal Palace. We have had cattle shows, horse shows, dog shows and shows of various other animals more or less domesticated, but this is the first cat show of an extensive and thoroughly organised character the world has ever seen."

THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS gave this unique occasion the attention it deserved. "It is but two or three weeks since a pigeon-race to Brussels was the special attraction at the Crysal Palace. This has been followed by an exhibition of domestic cats. At first the proposal to hold a cat show was received with much ridicule; but 'nothing succeeds like success.' The number of entries and the multitude of visitors are sufficient guarantee that a cat show will in future constitute one of the annual attractions of the Palace."

Coverage of this remarkable and outstanding event was very wide. "The rage for shows has surely nearly reached its climax," said the ILLUSTRATED TIMES. "The public have long been familiar with flower shows, cattle shows, dog shows and shows of agricultural instruments and produce. There have been baby shows, and at least one barmaid show. And now we have got a cat show—and a very successful show it appears to have been. There was a wealth of cats that must have astonished those who are ignorant of the beauties and varieties of the animal."

The number of cats exhibited was 170; the number of prizes distributed by the judges, the Revd. Cumming Macdona, Mr. Harrison Weir and Mr. Jenner Weir, was 54, amounting to a total value of £57. 15s. The only difficulty was to see the cats, owing to the press of visitors.

The animals were arranged according to colour, prizes being offered for the tortoiseshell, the black and white, for the long-haired or Persian cats, and for animals of the greatest weight, so reported one journalist. The animals (he went on to say) were judged less with reference to mere size than to elegance of form, richness of colour and beauty and evenness of markings, those points of the cat being firmly established by Mr. Harrison Weir."

What were considered by many to have been the most beautiful animals in the show were the white Persians. Of these there were several with pale blue eyes which, said the ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS, "looked as if they had no business to be out of fairyland!"

There was a wild cat from Sutherland, exhibited by the Duke of Sutherland, described as "bristling with passion—who gathers himself up in a corner of his cage and glares at the public with his wrinkled yellow face, occasionally making a fierce dash against the bars of his cage, beating his head in ungovernable fury."

Two Siamese cats were described as being like a black-faced pug-dog. They were reported as being the first of their kind ever to be brought into the country. "An unnatural, nightmare kind of cat!" was the description of them. Other cats which aroused much curiosity and speculation were several specimens with seven toes to each foot, and others whose tails were missing!

BRITISH WILD CAT

"One myth has been cleared up by the exhibition," declared one report, "namely that cats and spinsters are always associated. Of the prizes offered 32 were awarded to gentlemen, 15 to married ladies, and only 4 to spinsters."

Because the exhibition was only open for one day to the public, THE DAILY TELEGRAPH urged its readers to hurry down to the Crystal Palace as soon as they read these lines. "The affection of masters and mistresses for cats must be the excuse urged by the Crystal Palace authorities for this brief cat festival. The timid cats cower under the straw and tremble. The wild cats dash themselves against the bars and spit. The conceited cats pose themselves on the comfortable cushions provided for them, and roll themselves into delightful attitudes. The affectionate cats rub themselves up against the bars and fascinate any passer-by. The sulky cats refuse to be petted, or stroked, or scratched, or coaxed."

"The dog has his day," said another report, and makes a terrible noise; but the cat will do anything but maeow at the Crystal Palace. There never surely was such a noiseless show. Dogs, canaries, parrots, cockatoos, poultry, all give tongue, but the cats behave themselves with the greatest propriety." Some of the cats were said to be somnolent as dormice, while others were quietly engaged in nursery affairs, being accompanied to the exhibition by very young kittens.

The animals were exhibited in the north nave of the Crystal Palace. They were shown in the pens of the Peristeronic Club, under which name the members of the Pigeon Society concealed their merits. The attendance of visitors was, as it turned out, inconveniently large.

In addition to the wild cat sent by the Duke of Sutherland, two stuffed specimens of that ilk were exhibited by Mr. F. Buckland. Another novelty, as it was thought, was a cat with one blue eye and one green.

The Hon. Mrs. Grey contributed an imported Persian cat of rare pedigree, besides which there were many Persians of several colours, Angora, Aleppo, and other foreign types of cat including "one of great rarity from Siam."

A first-prize white Persian, with dark blue eyes, was the property of Mrs. E. Forgerty. Another first-prize Persian, described as "delicately coloured," belonged to Miss E. D'Oyly. A beautifully marked and richly-coloured sandy tom cat gained a first prize for its owner Mr. Rowley. First prize for one of the fattest cats in the show, weighing over 20 pounds, went to Mr. Nash. The biggest cat was a fine brown tabby, described as the "only real brown tabby entered," belonging to Miss Amos. There was also a tortoiseshell tom-cat which drew some attention, though one report described it as being poor in colour and very feminine in appearance. A Crimean cat, which looked like an ordinary tortoiseshell, was playing, English fashion, with some charming kittens.

"Among the rarer specimens in the show," reported THE MORNING POST, are two Siamese cats, which are said to be the first of the kind ever brought to this country. They are exhibited by Miss E. Maxwell of Belgrave-road. A remarkable specimen of English breed is exhibited by Lady Lubbock; it is of a brownish colour, beautifully marked, and showing in its long hair and foxlike tail something of Persian characteristics. Noticeable samples of the Prussian cat are also shown by Miss Edith D'oyly and Dr. Kirkman and others. Mrs. Louise Macguire forwards a "French African," or Algerian cat, and Miss Eleanor Dickinson sends specimens of the Manx Cat, which Nature has failed, intentionally or otherwise, to supply with a tail. Mr. Sam Airleigh shows some cats of English breed which illustrates another freak of nature in the fact that they have seven claws to each foot.

FRENCH-AFRICAN CAT 1871

"Many other specimens might be particularised, but these will suffice to give some idea of the varied and interesting character of this feline assembly, for which the public are chiefly indebted to the enterprise of Mr. F. W. Wilson, superintendent of the natural history department of the Palace, assisted by Mr. F. J. K. Shenton, superintendent of the literary department, and other gentlemen who have taken an interest in the movement. The judges were busy yesterday making their awards, and the public will be admitted today. The first and second prizes for pure tortoiseshell cats were won by Mrs. Forchall and Mr. Richard Bailey of Streatham. In another class closely approaching to purity, Mr. Elliott had the first prize."

Congratulations were showered on the promoters. Such was the success of the Crystal Palace show that it was a foregone conclusion that this was only the first of a continuing series of cat shows. The Directors of the Crystal Palace were determined to repeat this success. The second cat show actually followed in December. It was also expressly hoped that "some means might be taken of promoting the exhibition of cats by the working classes!"

"Next year," wrote one enthusiastic reporter, "we may see a finer show of purely English domesticated cats. A prettier or more interesting show, as it is, has certainly never been seen, and we could have wished that it had been open, not for one day, but for many.

"Mr. Harrison Weir, the well-known naturalist and animal painter, from the first has taken the greatest interest in the exhibition and will leave no stone unturned to improve the breed of, and create additional interest in, that delightful animal the cat of the domestic hearth."

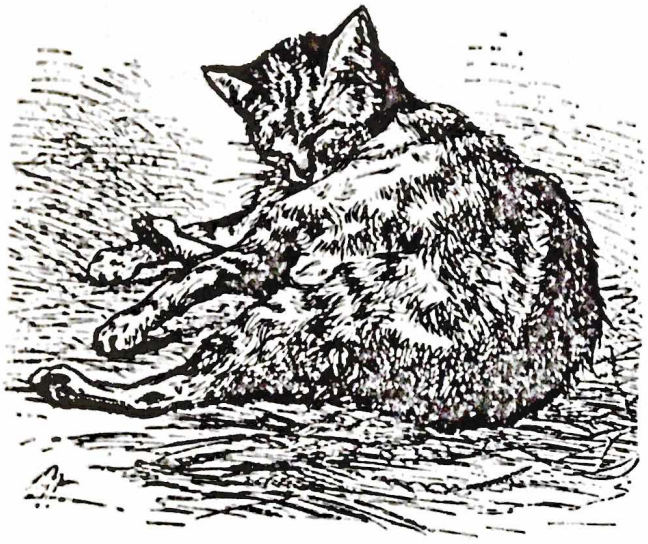
MANX OR TAILESS CAT 1871



CAT SHOW AT THE CRYSTAL PALACE

Upwards of 160 specimens of the feline tribe were sent into the exhibition. The entrance fee was 3s. 6d., but then the directors of the Crystal Palace Company offered 70*l.* in prizes, and Mr. F. W. Wilson, the superintendent of the Natural History Department, was indefatigable in his endeavours to collect as many noteworthy animals as possible. Our smaller engravings represent the following specimens:—The Siamese cats, a remarkable variety, quite new to this country. One writer speaks of them as "soft fawn-coloured creatures, with jet-black legs—an unnatural, nightmare kind of cat." Another says they are "singular and elegant in their smooth skins, and ears tipped with black, and blue eyes with red pupils." Next comes the French African cat, a very beautiful creature, with long woolly hair of a light brown colour. Thirdly, a Persian, direct from Persia, remarkable for the great beauty of his black, grey, and white coat. He is described as a "very amiable beast." Fourthly, an enormous English cat, weighing 21 lbs., the biggest in the show. His colour was a rich brown ground, striped with black. Fifthly, a native of the Isle of Man, with the usual Manx absence of tail. This cat was very beautifully marked with light red and yellow markings on a lighter ground of the same colour. This cat takes the water like a dog and catches fish. Lastly, a British wild cat, exhibited by the Duke of Sutherland. This cat is very scarce, indeed almost extinct in the British Islands. His colour is sandy brown, and the form of the end of the nose and tail peculiar. He has lost the right front paw. He behaved like a mad devil, and ten men could not get him into a wire cage out of the box in which he was sent. Altogether the Cat Show was a complete success.

With acknowledgments to The Graphic, July 22, 1871.

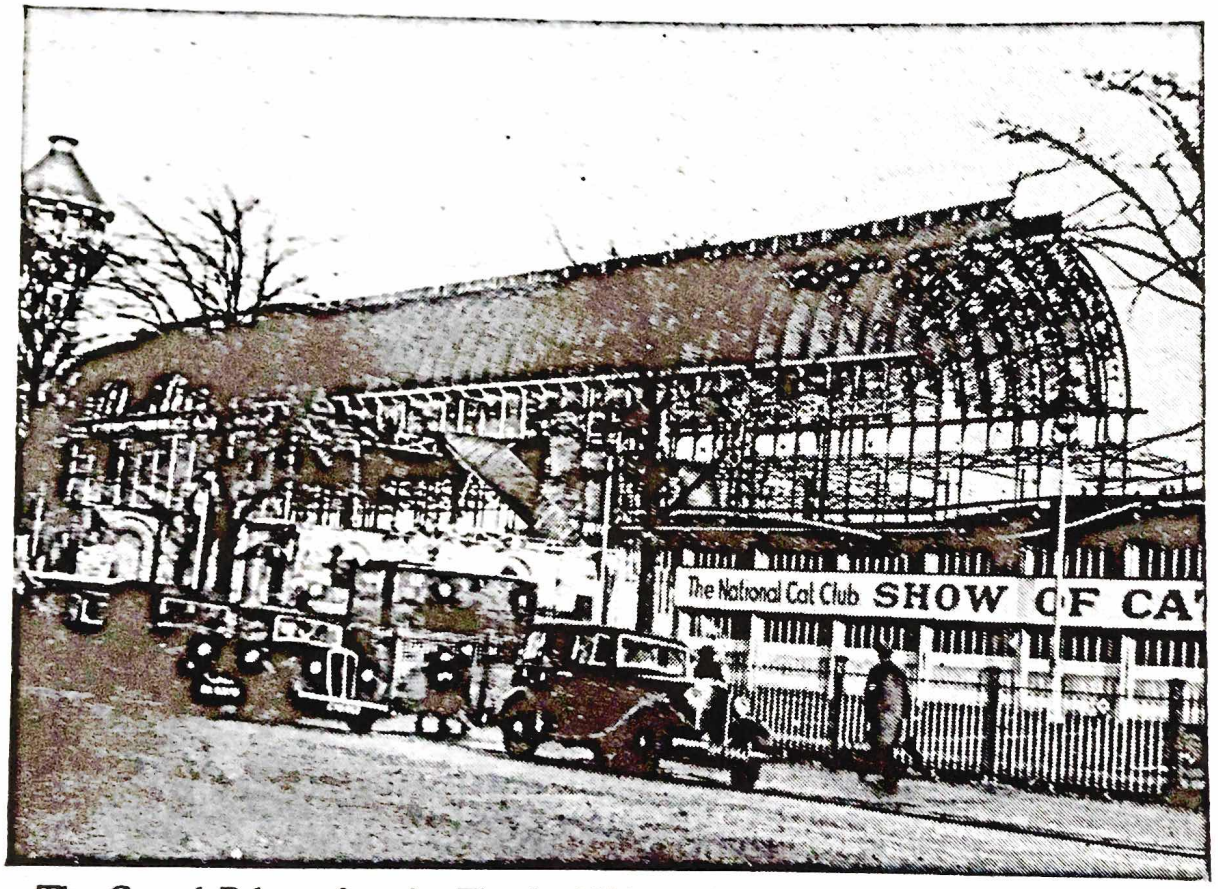
THE FIRST CAT SHOWS

The first official cat show was held at the Crystal Palace on the 13th July, 1871, and was run on very similar lines to those of the present day shows. It was the brain child of Mr. Harrison Weir, whose particular love was cats, although he kept various other animals and also was well known in the horticultural world.

Up to that time, although cats had been seen as side shows at Agricultural and County shows, even at circuses, and dog shows had been held and well patronised for some years, no one seems to have thought of exhibiting and actually judging cats. To quote Harrison Weir's own words in his book Our Cats and all about them "I conceived the idea that it would be well to hold "Cat Shows," so that the different breeds, colours, markings, etc. might be more carefully attended to, and the domestic cat, sitting in front of the fire, would then possess a beauty and an attractiveness to its owner unobserved and unknown because uncultivated heretofore."



The Crystal Palace after the Fire in 1936 on the day the Cat Show should have been held. Acknowledgement 'Lens' of Sutton.

In a very few days he had drawn up "the schedule of prizes, the price of entry, the number of classes and the points by which they would be judged." The Crystal Palace Company readily agreed with him about the possibiities of such a show, and Mr. F. Wilson, their show superintendent, was entrusted with the actual organisation.

John Jennings writing in his Domestic or Fancy Cats in 1895 wrote "many will remember the sensation created by this first Cat Exhibition, which opened up a channel for the feline race never hitherto dreamt of. Many who then were seized with 'cat fever' will recollect how this first programme was subject to criticism . . . The usual wisdom after events have been successful was of course strongly in evidence."

At the first show, the judges were Harrison Weir, his brother, John Jenner Weir, and the Rev. J. Macdona. It created great interest and soon more shows were being held in other parts of the country. Dr. Gordon Stables, another early cat judge, was a true prophet when he wrote in 1876 "Cat Shows are only in their infancy, and anyone who CHANCES to have a good cat, may nowadays take prizes. In future years, there will be no chance work about the matter at all, and those only who study the breeding and rearing of cats in a scientific and sensible manner will be the winners." He gave good advice to would-be fanciers then that still holds good today. He said "having made up your mind as to what particular breed you mean to go in for, stick by that breed for a time, at least, and go in for no other."

In 1873, a show was held at the Alexandra Palace and in Birmingham, and in 1875 a show in Edinburgh attracted 560 cats, a special attraction being a cat rescued from the ninth storey of a building after a fire. The same year, the Crystal Palace show had '325 pens,' and a class was put on for the "Wild or Hybrid between Wild and Domestic Cats," with an Ocelot winning the first prize. As well as the Crystal Palace, the Brighton Aquarium became a favoured hall for shows.

At the early shows penning was on tabling and trestles, very much the same as now, with earth being placed in the back of the pen for toilet purposes, with a cushion placed in front for the cat to sit on. At other shows, straw was provided for the pens and Eucalyptus was used as a disinfectant. An R.S.P.C.A. official was frequently present to make sure all was well when the cats were taken out of their baskets, on arrival.

For many years, it was possible to send cats unaccompanied to the shows for collection at the various termini by the show manager and her helpers. They had to be fed and generally looked after and returned by train when the show was over. Infection was rife and many catteries were almost wiped out after a show. The sad part was that fanciers failed to realise that their houses or catteries were still infected, and bought more cats and kittens, which invariably died only a few days after arriving at their new home.

For many years the National Cat Club held two shows a year, one in June at the Botanical Gardens, now Queen Mary's Gardens, Regents Park, London, and the other in October at the Crystal Palace until it was destroyed by fire in 1936, the day before the show was to be held there. The show manager calmly sent telegrams to all the exhibitors and simply transferred the show to another hall. The summer show had been dropped some time before this, and the National held an annual show, usually in December, at such halls as the Paddington Baths, the Kentish Town Baths, the Lime Grove Baths, the Seymour Hall, and the Royal Horticultural Hall, Westminster, outgrowing them in time. In 1958, with some trepidation, the Club decided to stage the show at the Olympia. It was a most successful move, attracted world-wide interest, and has been held there ever since, with ever-increasing entries, eventually earning the title of the GREATEST CAT SHOW IN THE WORLD.

PEDIGREE

The word 'pedigree' has been foolishly exalted in our language. We pronounce it with precision as though it belonged to the aristocracy, or referred to a state of perfection.

In truth a pedigree is no more than the recorded collection of the marriage certificates of mums and dads and grandmas and grandfathers all going backward from one descendant. It has nothing to do with beauty as such—only with truth. To the eye of the beholder the household's Moonlight Minnie may be just as lovely as the cat with a pedigree a yard long. The point, however, is that the owner of the pedigree cat has knowledge of a background and, with intelligence, can work from there to a desired end.

So pedigree is important. Its corner-stone is the registration form of the Governing Council of the Cat Fancy.

The exhibition pedigree cat must win his place in the hierarchy of champions and big winners by competing against his peers at shows all over the country held under Governing Council rules.

These shows are invariably well run and enjoyable. They reach their zenith with the great 'National.'

This is indeed a pedigree show with ancestry running back far into history. Each year the show organiser, officials and committee look back at the record of previous years and strive to improve in some way or other.

And, miracle of miracles, the impossible is yearly achieved.

The public is fascinated by the pedigree cat in its show pen. Noise it around town that there's to be a championship show of cats and a good attendance is assured. No two cats act alike. One will curl up and go indolently to sleep; another will stare with unblinking eyes as if to advise the passer-by to pass quickly.

Cat shows should not, however, be left to sell themselves. Wise societies rightly make use of every advertising medium. These differ almost from year to year, but the message of the cat show remains the same. Fifty years ago for a show at Edinburgh sandwich men paraded Princes Street with blackboards which read:

'England's greatest authority will adjudicate on hundreds of Cats at the ——Hall. All the Champion Felines have consented to appear.'

As then, now. For the 1971 National all the best felines have consented to appear.

H. DYSON, Editorial Director, FUR AND FEATHER.

SOME FACTS AND FIGURES

The entries at the first Crystal Palace Show were approximately 160 cats, and as cat shows became fashionable, being patronised by Queen Victoria, who owned a pair of Blue Persians, and the Prince of Wales, later Edward VII, the numbers increased rapidly. Keeping cats became almost a status symbol, and at the 1889 show there were more than 600 cats and kittens entered.

Cats from Britain were sent all over the world, forming the foundation of new cat fancies. Unfortunately due to the 1914-18 War, there were fewer shows and less cats bred, and at the show in 1920 there were only 236 cats. Again the numbers crept up very slowly, reaching 332 at the 1931 show. Again the Cat Fancy in Britain was hard hit by the 1939-1945 War, with no shows and very little breeding being carried on. At the National Cat Club show held at the Kentish Road Baths in 1947, it was only possible to muster about 200 entries.

Some of the drop in numbers can also be blamed on the fact that over the years violent outbreaks of Feline Infectious Enteritis took their toll, with some catteries suffering almost an 100% loss after a show. With the introduction of vaccines and vaccination against I.F.E., with the recognition of several new varieties and the ever-increasing interest and demand for pedigree cats, numbers grew steadily from 500 at the 1954 show to 630 at the 1960 show. By 1963, entries at the National Cat Club show reached the grand total of 1,000, including pets. In 1970, the incredible figure of 1,800 cats were reached, and to-day's total is in the vicinity of 2,000.

THE CAT FANCY

This is the term used when referring to pedigree cats, cat fanciers and the cat clubs generally, but 'Cat Fancy' is also part of the title of the only registering body in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

After the very successful early cat shows and the ever growing interest in the exhibits, it was realised that in order to produce specific colours, some knowledge was needed of the parentage of the cats. In 1887 the National Cat Club was formed, with Mr. Harrison Weir as the first president. It started to keep a stud book and became the first registering body for pedigree cats in the world. The Club continued to act in this capacity until 1910 when the Governing Council of the Cat Fancy came into being, taking over from the National, which became the Premier Club.

The Governing Council of the Cat Fancy is a democratic body composed of delegates appointed annually by the members of the various affiliated cat clubs and societies throughout the country. The delegates receive no fees for their services, attending Council meeting many times a year, some, in addition to serving on various committees, such as the Executive.

The Council employs two registrars to deal with the registers and transfers and a secretary to look after the general business. It issues stud books and lists, grants licences for shows held under its jurisdiction, approves standards for new varieties, and gives challenge and premier certificates at championship shows. It publishes a book of the Standards on which cats are judged.

Your kitten and the Killer Disease

A new way to protect him

Cat Killer No. 1 – Feline Infectious Enteritis – spreads like wildfire. And it's still common. You can't shut your kitten up against infection. And once he contracts it, there's little that you – or even your veterinary surgeon – can do to save him. Too late to be sorry, then.

DON'T LET IT HAPPEN

Ask your veterinary surgeon about his first dose of new FIOVAX TC at 7 weeks. New double dose Fiovax TC is recommended to be used so early because it could give your kitten vital weeks of extra protection. This may well be a matter of life or death – because kittens are more susceptible to Feline Infectious Enteritis than grown cats. Whether or not a previous dose of FIOVAX TC has been given, a dose at 12 weeks of age is essential.

Kittens over 12 weeks and adult cats may be immunized with one injection only.

ON THE RUNNING OF THE CAT SHOWS

Cat shows are the shop windows of the Cat Fancy. They enable breeders to exhibit their stock and by their wins to ascertain the quality ; to become well-known for their cats, and to sell them.

The organisation of a cat show means many months of hard work by the show manager and her helpers. The preparation of the schedule alone takes weeks, then there will be the acceptance of the entries, the checking of the monies received, and eventually the sending out of the tallies and vetting-in cards. Advertisements are collected to be included in the catalogue and possible stall-holders written to. The judges are chosen often a year or more before the show. Each judge has to have a steward to go with her to the pen to take the cat out—these too are chosen usually by the judge prior to the show.

All enries in the pedigree section must be registered with the Governing Council of the Cat Fancy, and if there has been a change of ownership, must have been transferred at least three weeks before the show. Cats are registered according to their breed (see Official breed numbers).

A cat may be entered in twelve classes or less, the most important being the Open or breed class. A cat winning this class, dependent on the number of entries, may be given a challenge certificate, should the judge consider it up to the standard. Three such wins at three shows by three separate judges are required before the cat can bear the coveted title of Champion. Champions may compete against one another in the Champion of Champion class, and again dependent on numbers entered, may be given a Grand Challenge Certificate—after three such wins, the title Grand Champion may be awarded. Kittens and neuters have their own open breed classes. There are a number of miscellaneous classes, such as senior and junior ; also the various clubs throughout the country guarantee classes for their members only (see definition of classes).

No exhibit may enter the show hall until it has been thoroughly examined by the veterinary surgeons. Dirty ears, fleas in the fur, a temperature, running noses and eyes may mean that the cat will be turned down, and in this case, the entry fees paid are not returnable. It is unwise, therefore, to bring any animal to a show that is not in absolutely tip-toe condition.

In the Show hall the cats are benched in numbered pens according to their breeds, i.e. Longhairs and Shorthairs, (the British, Foreign and Siamese.) Each section being divided into the various colours and varieties.

Prize monies are given for each class, but this is relatively small and it is the first prize cards that are most coveted. The prize monies are not paid out on the day, nor are the cups distributed. It will be several weeks before the money is sent out, as all entries are checked by the Registrars of the Cat Fancy to make sure that there are no errors. Mistakes made on the entry forms and reproduced in the catalogue can mean disqualification and loss of any prize monies.

There are a great many shows held throughout the country in a year. If you have enjoyed this one, you may care to visit others. Many are advertised in this catalogue, giving the address of the show manager. A full list may be obtained from the secretary of the Governing Council (price 10p):—

Mrs. W. Davis,

There are also more than sixty clubs in the British Isles, some specialist catering for those interested in specific breeds, but the majority are all-breed clubs (see club advertisements throughout the catalogue or write to the Secretary as above for list price 10p.)

PASSES

Due to complaints from the Olympia regarding the large number of people in the hall prior to the official opening and their insistence that all fire exits must be kept open, EVERYBODY entering the hall with cats for penning, or accompanying them must have passes. These cost 25p each with entry, children 15p. There will be no free passes this year.

The passes will be in the form of distinguishing tags which must be displayed.

The centre of the hall will be cleared for the first half-hour of judging and any not wearing a pass will have to leave the hall and pay for admission with the general public.

Give them the GOOD HEALTH that NATURE provides

DENES for over twenty years now have been extracting the health-giving properties from the herbs that nature has provided and concentrated them into Diet Supplements and Herbal Remedies so that the modern day, domesticated pets can still obtain the good health and protection from disease that they would seek out for themselves if left to their own devices in their natural environment.

These health giving products are obtainable at most Health Food shops and leading pet stores or direct from

KATOLYN BURMESE

PRESTON - LANCS.

At Stud now : CH. KALOS BLUE ARMETUS (Adam)
(Ch. Buskins Blue Sunya x Belcanto Salome)
Large, healthy boy with endless patience

At Stud Spring, 1972 : MELANIN HEATHFIELD (Teddy-Boy)
(Kupro Cream Chantel x Lampetra, U.S.A.)
Lovely Cream lad, nine months old and busy learning the " trade " from Adam. Teddy has gorgeous yellow eyes.

Our stud quarters are heated, clean, and have been praised by many leading breeders. Queens have their own heated quarters and private escape-proof run. We know the queen is not very interested in food at a time like this, but individual diet is offered and includes local-caught rabbit. Egg and milk is served at lunch time.

OWN QUEENS KEPT—ALL BURMESE COLOURS AVAILABLE

Abyssinian kittens now ready from lovely Red queen Flume Adromeda

Visitors welcome anytime. Queens to be accompanied if possible, if not, can be met Preston or Liverpool

PENSYLVA BRITISH BLUES

Short-haired CREAMS and BLUE-CREAMS, also EXOTIC-COLOURED SPOTTEDS

They ARE the TOPS!

This lovely Pensylva British Blue Kitten is now a superb British Blue Champion.

Many years of study, practical experience and selective breeding, brings consistent 'winners' every year, enriching our devotion and endeavours to breed well.

We have bred more than 45 Champions, International Champions, Double and Quadruple Champions, etc., with others coming along. Although unable to show much for the past two years, our own efforts have earned us 128 Challenge Certificates, with continued Open Class wins, totalling an incredible number. B.I.S. nominations and awards have been accredited to many different cats and kittens we have bred, not to just one or two!

Pensylva Kittens are carefully bred for stamina, character and type. Their winning ways make them popular on the Show bench or, equally, as a loving and beautiful pet to grace your home. They do expect loving homes!

For breeding/showing, or pets, apply to their exclusive breeder

. . . . into a superb BRITISH CAT LIKE THIS

A FAMOUS CHAMPION BRITISH BLUE PENSYLVA STUD

Congratulations to our fine PENSYLVA BRITISH BLUES on their continued fabulous success overseas; also to the PENSYLVA CREAMS and BLUE-CREAMS we have introduced to other countries where they have never bred them. We are proud to have PENSYLVA cats, or their progeny, in every European country interested in the Cat Fancy. Those in the U.S.A. continue to gain top honours, with Gr. Ch. PENSYLVA TIMOTHY of SIDLO'S progeny again in their PARADE OF ROYALTY; Ch. PENSYLVA CORRINA was voted ALL-AMERICAN BRITISH BLUE CAT OF THE YEAR. This is the third PENSYLVA CAT to have won this title out there. INT. CH. PENSYLVA GAY CAVALIER has this year welcomed PENSYLVA FAIR ENCHANTRESS (the first Cream Cat out there).

PENSYLVA CHAMPAGNE ROSE (Switzerland) has introduced the British S.H. Cream there. Belgium has also been introduced to our PENSYLVA MISSANI (British Blue-Cream) and PENSYLVA ENCHANTED PLAYBOY (British Blue) by a delightful, and enthusiastic couple who came to England especially to see our cats and choose suitable ones to take back as ambassadors of the breeds.

We send a special " thank you " to our overseas friends and wish you all continued success and pleasure from our mutual hobby.

We also congratulate enthusiasts at home who have gained successes with PENSYLVA-bred cats and their progeny.

Though unable to show very little this year, we are proud to have made three more of our own cats Champions, i.e. Champion PENSYLVA SUZIE BLUE (British Blue), Champion PENSYLVA PYRAMUS (British Blue Stud) and Champion PENSYLVA BLOND BANDIT (British S.H. Cream stud).

You can see lovely pictures of our cats, and read about them, in THE BATSFORD BOOK OF CATS by Mrs. Grace Pond, THE WORLD OF SHOW CATS by Mrs. May Eustace, and in many other smaller books; you can also see—in full colour—Ch. PENSYLVA MIRUS (British Blue, Ch. PENSYLVA FLAXEN NYMPH (British Cream) and Ch. PENSYLVA FANTASIA (British Blue-Cream) in a wonderful new all-colour colour pictorial book by Mrs. Grace Pond entitled CHAMPIONS OF THE WORLD which Harrups are publishing next Spring.

The PENSYLVAS are selectively and exclusively bred by

The Cats of Karnak

THE UPPER NILE CAT CLUB

LUXURY RIVER CRUISE

Six weeks on the River vsiting the night-spots of Luxor, Thebes and Karnak.

Price : THREE MICES

Not only does today mark the CENTENARY OF CAT SHOWS—but also, 100 years ago today, one of our most famous archaeologists, Professor R. U. Kattavackt, succeeded in deciphering the inscription on the Syenite tablet (reproduced above), which was found in the ruins of the Memphis left-luggage office.

This, O disbelieving cat lovers, may well be the real reason why the cats of Abyssinia moved north—and settled at Karnak—where they won esteem and honour in the temples of the Pharaohs.

Much research reading the records inscribed on the ancient Egyptian dishes or trays—made usually of an early plastic called litta—reveals that one Karnak Cat reached the very highest office by being appointed Shop Steward in Queen Cleopatra's carpet factory!

The Karnak Abyssinians of today, living in the somewhat less exotic surroundings of rural Dorset, nevertheless maintain their regal dignity and recall their renowned ancestry with pride.

KARNAK CATS can be found all over England and Wales, and their owners say they've never known cats like them.

Este gatito se habria muerto de hambre

(This kitten would have starved to death)

While this kitten was dying of starvation, her owner was sitting down to a four-course meal in a Spanish hotel.

Luckily for the kitten, her desperate cries were heard. The RSPCA were called, just in time. A day later and the kitten would've been dead. After eight days in a locked house without food, she was taken into one of the RSPCA's homes for cats, where she was nursed back to health.

The RSPCA fights cruelty wherever it exists, even at holiday times. Please help. We receive no state aid.

OBSERVER'S BOOK OF CATS

GRACE POND

Though the history of the domestic cat goes back at least to the time of the ancient Egyptians, it is only comparatively recently that scientific breeding has been undertaken to produce the many beautiful varieties seen on the show bench today. All the recognised breeds and varieties are described and illustrated in this book. Owners of the humble "household pet," as well as of pedigree animals, will find useful advice on care and breeding, and from her experience as a judge at many cat shows the author gives valuable hints on preparing a cat for show. A list is also given of the main Cat Clubs and Societies in Britain, the Commonwealth and the U.S.A. Fully illustrated in colour and black and white, yet only 45p net.

CAPTION TO PAGE OF PICTURES OF CATS IN THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS for July 22, 1871

(see back cover over) (with acknowledgements)

" At the top of our page of illustrations is shown a very elegant and richly-coloured tortoiseshell-and-white cat, belonging to Mr. Cox. To the left is the first-prize white Persian, a beautiful creature, with dark blue eyes, which have almost a sadness about them mixed with gentle contentment. This beautiful creature was the property of Mrs. E. Forgerty. On the right is the delicately-coloured Persian, which took the first prize, belonging to Miss E. Doyley. On the right, and lower on the page, is the splendid specimen exhibited by Mr. Johnson, which gained a first prize. On the left of it is the Duke of Sutherland's British wild cat. This is almost unique, so rare are they now. Again to the right, reclining, is Mr. Rowley's beautifully-marked and richly-coloured first prize sandy tom-cat, a little beauty. Below it is one exhibited by Mr. Nash, which gained an extra first prize, undoubtedly one of the fattest cats at the show, with a mild and gentle manner. Last, not least—the biggest of the show—a fine brown tabby (in fact, the only real brown tabby sent), a grand animal, belonging to Miss Amos."
