SHORT-HAIR SECTION

BRITISH SHORT-HAIRED ADULTS

The British Shorthair is a powerful compact cat with a sturdy body and legs, a shortish tail and a round head with small, widely-spaced ears, large round eyes and a short straight nose. The coat is short and dense, not fine and close like the Siamese, but with no fluffiness to it.

Breed No. 14—Blue-eyed White

Again, three white breeds are recognised, the coats being pure white and the eye colour of the first being deep sapphire blue.

Breed No. 18—Silver Tabby

The British Tabbies are recognised in the same three colours as in the Longhairs, the markings showing up even more clearly on the short coat, but two patterns are permitted, the classic tabby pattern with its "butterfly" markings on the shoulders and "oysters" on the flanks, and the mackerel pattern with thin unbroken lines running vertically from the spine.

In the Silver Tabby the markings are jet black on a clear silver ground and the eyes are green or hazel.

Breed No. 25—Manx

This is the only breed in the British Shorthair section which does not have true British type. The major difference, of course, is the complete absence of tail, but there are other minor points—the back is short and the hind legs are longer than the front ones, the nose is longer than in the British and the ears are taller. The coat also has a slightly different quality as the hairs of the outer coat are longer than those of the thick undercoat. The coat and eye colour should preferably conform to those of other British Shorthairs but are of far less importance than the other features of the breed.
