SHOW MANAGER'S WELCOME

On behalf of the Humberside Cat Club, a very warm welcome to everyone attending our 30th annual Championship show, which again this year runs in parallel with the show held by our friends the Lincolnshire Cat Club. The Newark venue was very well received by exhibitors and judges alike when we came here for the first time 2 years ago, and we plan to stay here for the foreseeable future. There was an issue with balancing the need to keep the hall secure in the case of any cat escapees, with obtaining sufficient ventilation on a hot day. Last year we provided cat-proof grilles to be placed over some of the doorways, and they certainly helped on what was possibly the hottest day of the summer. We ask for your cooperation in not using these doorways except in case of an emergency evacuation.

We hope this will be a fabulous day, and may I wish you all good luck. We have tried to look at all aspects of the day to ensure it runs smoothly, but if there is anything (good or bad) that you need to let us know about then please don't hesitate, either come and find me at the Show Manager's table or drop me a line afterwards, whichever you prefer.

Your support for this twin-show venture since we began 5 years ago has been gratifying. Many thanks for all of this.

Judy Walsh
