

CATALOGUE

Ever since the first cat show was held in 1871, fanciers have had standards of excellence to aim for. At first there was minimal mention of the shape of the cats, the breeds differing mainly in coat length and colour, but the standards evolved, the breeds changed gradually and cats today are bred in a dozen distinct shapes.

Despite the differences in shape (or "type") essential to the various breeds, no standard of points calls for extreme deviation from the basic mongrel cat shape and size, and deformities are severely penalised in all breeds, so that today's cats still move, feed and breed naturally.

SECTION 1

The breeds in this section are all Persian in type, varying only in their coat colour, markings and eye colour or, in the case of the Exotics, their coat length. They are big, solid cats with a cobby body, sturdy legs, a short tail and a broad round head with a short nose, small ears set wide apart and large round eyes; the effect is one of roundness and substance, enhanced by the beautiful coat which should be long, dense and silky in Persians, dense and plushy in Exotics.

Dominant Tortoiseshell & White - GEMS PER f 03 & PER h 03

The Black Tortoiseshell and White Persian has patches of black and varying shades of red plus white, the patches of the different colours being distinct, without scattered white hairs. In the Chocolate Tortoiseshell & White the black is replaced by chocolate. The degree of white varies from a minimum of white to all 4 limbs, underbelly and chest to van patterned. The face should show both colours and white. The eyes can be deep orange or copper; clear blue or, in the case of the odd-eyed, one eye of each colour.

Black & Chocolate Smoke - GEMS PER ns & PER bs

The face and feet of the Black Smoke are black and the body a pale silvery-white with black ends to the hairs so that what, in repose, might appear to be a black cat suddenly reveals, by moving, the true beauty of its contrasting undercoat. In the Chocolate Smoke, a more recent breed, the mask, feet and ends of the hair are chocolate.

Exotic - GEMS EXO

The Exotic is a cat with Persian type, including the typical Persian look with its snub nose, but with a short soft coat, although the coat is slightly longer than that of the other shorthairs. It may be bred in any of the colours seen in Persian longhairs, with the eye colour appropriate to that longhair breed and in a variety of spotted colours. The classes are split into Self and Non-Self.

The gorgeous cat in the photo opposite is an Exotic Red Tabby. His GEMS code is EXO d 22.

Exotic cats make ideal pets for owners who want a gentle affectionate lap cat. Good quality Exotic kittens are big and sturdy. Their temperament is gentle but playful and full of life; they love to be with people. Quietly endearing, Exotics request your attention with an irresistible gaze and then hug you when you pick them up. They will follow you from room to room in order to be near you and then jump in your lap for a nap when you settle down to read a book or watch the TV.
